

CALL FOR ALL QUEENS-BASED Dance Companies

2019 QUEENSBORO DANCE FESTIVAL TOUR: May 11- October 6

Submission Deadline: April 8

Celebrating its 6th season, the mission of the Queensboro Dance Festival (QDF) is to strengthen the dance community in Queens, and garner a greater appreciation for Queens dance. QDF is an annual, 6-month tour across Queens theaters, parks, plazas, streets, libraries, and other uniquely Queens venues!

- All dance forms of any cultures and styles welcome!
- Choreographer or dance company must be based in Queens
- Free to apply, free to participate
- ALAANA (African/Latinx/Asian/Arab/Native American) dance cast, and/or majority Queens-based dance cast encouraged
- Premieres of dance work, or collaborations with Queens musicians encouraged

Queensboro Dance Festival participants receive:

- Free rehearsal space at Jamaica Performing Arts Center
- Free Career Development Workshop with Jamaica Center of Arts and Learning (JCAL)'s Director of Programs & Artist Services
- Free Fundraising/Grant Workshop with Queens Theatre's Executive Director and Development team
- Discounted rehearsal space at Spaceworks LIC
- Free Queens artist meetups & parties
- Free master classes by RIOULT Dance NY and more
- QDF Class Xchange: Paid teaching opportunities and access to free dance classes
- Special access to Queens arts institutions
- Photo and video footage

Connect with your Queens dance community and neighborhoods, while discovering the borough and sharing your work with local audiences!

More Info & apply at:

www.QUEENSBORODANCEFESTIVAL.COM/APPLY

@queensborodancefestival
#qdf2019

